WHISTLER'S FUNERAL.

Distinguished Gathering at Services in Chiswick Churchyard.

London, July 23.—The body of James A. MacNeill Whistler, the American artist who died July 17, has been interred in the family burial plot in the old church at Chiswick, where he often went with his mother when she was alive. There were no services at the house.

The coffin, which was covered with a purple pall, was carried to the church, followed by the honorary pallbearers and relatives on foot. The pallbearers were Sir James Guthrie, president of the Royal Scottish academy; Charles Freer, George W. Vanderbilt, Edwin A. Abbey, John Lavery of the Royal Scottish academy and Theodore Duret, all personal friends of the deceased.

In spite of the fact that no announcement of the funeral was made in the London papers distinguished friends of the deceased crowded the church. Beautiful floral wreaths were received from Messrs. Vanderbilt, Alma-Tadema and Freer, as well as from the art societies.

Mrs. Pollon Gets a Warrant.

New York, July 24.—Mrs. Katharine Pollon, who is suing William Gould Brokaw for $500,000, charging breach of promise and libel, secured in the west side police court a warrant calling for the arrest of a woman who, she charges, has been following her and threatening her life. The warrant was given a court officer to serve, and Mrs. Pollon left the court room with him.

Shot a Union Workman.

Chicago, July 24.—Adolph Ehman, a member of the firm of Charles Ehman & Co., mantle manufacturers, angered by the jeers of a crowd of union workmen while he was acting as guard over nonunion men, shot and seriously wounded Robert Kuter, one of his tormentors. He was immediately arrested.
